The Hirer's Obligations:

The hirer must lock the vehicle when not using it and use any security device fitted or supplied with the vehicle. The hirer must also protect the vehicle against bad weather which can cause damage.

The hirer is responsible for any damage to the vehicle caused by hitting low-level objects, such as bridges or low hanging branches in addition to damage to alloys caused when parking close to kerbs.

The hirer must not sell, rent or dispose of the vehicle or any of its parts or give anyone any legal rights over the vehicle.

The hirer must not let anyone work on the car without the permission of the lessor.

The hirer will ensure that any additional driver will comply with these Terms and Conditions and shall be responsible for any loss arising for any non-compliance as if the breach were his own.

At the conclusion of the hire period, the hirer will redeliver the vehicle to the lessor in a clean condition with all the tyres, tools, radio, keys and other accessories in the same condition as when received; ordinary wear and tear excepted, at such place and at such date and time the lessor shall direct.

The hirer agrees that until the vehicle is physically in the possession of the lessor the vehicle remains at the risk of the hirer. The hirer must notify the lessor as soon as the hirer becomes aware of a fault. The hirer will immediately inform the lessor of any fault in the vehicle and will not use the vehicle whilst in an un-roadworthy condition.

The hirer will be liable to the lessor for all damage to the vehicle including, but not limited to, glass, tyres, and accessories, however caused.

The hirer agrees to pay the lessor a charge of £200 for any key lost, to cover the cost of replacement and associated administration. In the event the hirer puts the wrong grade of fuel into the vehicle the hirer will be liable for any costs incurred by the lessor in draining the tank and rectifying any subsequent damage.

The hirer will have to pay for reasonable costs of repair if the lessor has to pay extra costs to return the vehicle to its condition when the pre-rental inspection was carried out.

The hirer must return the vehicle on time. Failure to do so means breaks the conditions of this agreement. The lessor can charge the hirer for everyday or part-day past the return date. The lessor will charge the hirer the daily rate agreed until the vehicle is returned. Delivery or surrender of the vehicle to a third party does not constitute re-delivery to the lessor.

The hirer must return the vehicle to the place agreed at the agreed time. A member of the lessor's staff must see the vehicle to check that it is in good condition. The hirer will remain responsible for the vehicle until it has been re-inspected by a member of the lessor's staff. A full inspection will be carried out when the car has been cleaned and in good light and the lessor will notify the hirer without delay if any damage is noted at this time that could not be identified at the time of hand over.

The Lessor's Obligations:

The lessor has maintained the vehicle to at least the manufacturer's recommended standard. The lessor also assures the hirer that the vehicle is roadworthy and suitable for hire at the start of the rental agreement.

- The vehicle not matching our description
- The vehicle not being fit to drive.

The lessor is responsible if someone is injured or dies as the result of the lessor's negligence, act or failure to act. In addition, losses the hirer suffers as a result of the lessor breaking this agreement if the losses are a foreseeable consequence of the hirer breaking the agreement. Losses are foreseeable where they could be contemplated by the hirer and the lessor at the time the vehicle is rented. The lessor is not responsible for indirect losses which happen as a side effect of the main loss or damage and which are not foreseeable by the hirer and lessor (such as loss of profits or loss of opportunity).

Conditions of Use of Vehicle:

The hirer may use the vehicle for the purpose of their business and for social domestic and pleasure purposes. The vehicles may not be used for any purposes for which they are not expressly designed, for example carrying a greater number of passengers and/or more baggage than recommended by the manufacturer.

- If the vehicle is a commercial vehicle, use it for a purpose for which hirer needs an operator's licence if the hirer does not have one
- Use the vehicle for towing unless the hirer has given the lessor written permission

Allowing a non-insured driver to drive the vehicle will result in the loss of the hirer's security bond; the lessor will also view this as theft of the vehicle and will prosecute without exception in all cases as theft.

The vehicle must only be driven by the hirer, and any other named on the rental agreement, or by anyone else the lessor authorises in writing. Anyone driving the vehicle must have a full valid driving licence.

The vehicle will not be driven during the hire period by any person who is under the influence of alcohol or any other substance which might impair the ability to drive or in a manner which would render void the policy or other contract of insurance, in contravention of any applicable Road Traffic legislation or of the Construction and Use Regulations for the time in force.

The vehicle will not be used during the period of hire in violation of the provisions of any act or regulations affecting the use, loading or condition of the vehicle or for any illegal purpose.

- The reasonable cost of repairing any extra damage which was not noted on our damage report sheet at the start of the agreement, whether the hirer was at fault or not (outlined in section 'The Hirer's Obligations' above) and the reasonable cost of replacing the vehicle if it is stolen, depending on any insurance the hirer has, as set out herein, if and when the hirer demands this payment.

- A loss of income charge, when the lessor asks for it, if the lessor cannot rent out the vehicle because it needs to be repaired, it is a write-off (can't be repaired) or it has been stolen and the lessor is waiting to receive full payment of the vehicle's full value. The lessor will only charge the hirer for loss of income if the lessor cannot get back the losses under the Insurance. The lessor will charge the hirer at the published daily rate and the lessor will never charge the hirer for more than 30 days rental or the lessor gets payment as soon as possible.

Booking & Cancellation:

The hirer requires a booking fee of 25% of the value of the booking. This is adjusted against the cost of the hire. Bookings are only confirmed when paid for in full, which must be paid for in full at the time of collection of the rental vehicle. Cancellations over 28 days prior to the hire date will incur a charge of 100% of the booking fee. No refund of monies paid will be made if cancellation of the booking is made less than 28 days of the hire date. Cancellations due to the hirer not meeting the Terms and Conditions set out here are the responsibility of the hirer and the lessor assumes no liability what so ever unless stated otherwise.

Excess & Security Deposit:

The security deposit is held:

- a) As a security bond
- b) As payments towards any mechanical damage which is not covered by our Insurers, e.g., tyres, wheels, clutch, gearbox, which was sustained during the hire period; excluding normal wear and tear, due to misuse and abuse.
- c) As an insurance excess against any accidental damage or loss caused to the vehicle by a third party or the hirer. The hirer is liable for the amount shown as Excess Deposit.
- d) To cover additional charges incurred during hire for excess mileage and, or, petrol reimbursement charges.
- e) As payment towards inconvenience caused and losses incurred in relation to police involvement/arrest which results in the car being confiscated or compounded and or being stopped for driving recklessly or dangerously.

The Excess Security Deposit is as per the Tariff. The Security Deposit can be held against a major credit/debit card and will be refunded immediately after the hire (subject to terms listed) so you do not incur any charges. The security bond can be reduced by taking out our CDW option; at an agreed amount dependant on vehicle category per hire or per week, subject to approval by the lessor. The security bond will only ever be held in full when damages are greater than the security bond or damages to the vehicle result in an insurance claim. In all other instances the cost of the damage only will be deducted.

Damage / Wear & Tear / Accidents / Theft:

All damages to our vehicles whilst in the custody of the hirer, however they arise, will be the responsibility of the hirer and the lessor will charge for the cost of the repairs against the Security Bond held against the hire up to the value of the Security Bond, if requested the lessor will provide a quotation for the works from an a repair specialist. Any excess wear to the car's tyres will be charged at a pro rata rate for the cost of replacing the tyres, the lessor will provide details of these charges should they apply, these charges also extend to unreasonable wear and tear on any other part of the car. Vehicles are only fully inspected once returned to the lessor's premises, this is due to dirty vehicles/bad light which hamper a full inspection at the hirer's address, any damage discovered once the hirer has cleaned the vehicle will then be charged, the lessor is not limited to noting the damage at the time of pickup of the vehicle for the reasons set out in this clause.

The hirer and/or any additional driver will report at once to the lessor the occurrences of any and every accident involving the vehicle, no matter how minor, and will complete an Accident Report Form within 24 hours. Furthermore, the hirer and/or additional driver will obtain the names and addresses of any other parties and of any witnesses to such an accident, make no admission of liability, immediately deliver to the lessor any correspondence, claim form, notice, proceedings or other documents received in connection with the accident. In addition, the hirer and/or additional driver will co-operate fully with the lessor and the lessor's and/or hirer's insurers in the investigation and defence of any claim. The hirer is responsible for the theft of the vehicle.

Smoking/Vaping in Vehicles:

Smoking and vaping in the vehicle is expressly forbidden and will result in the loss of the hirer's Security Bond. This includes allowing cigarette smoke or ash into the vehicle which would imply the above. The lessor may use a machine to determine if the car has been smoked in; smoking in the car with the window wound down will still be detected and will result in the loss of the hirer's Security Bond.

This includes any fine or penalty imposed under a fixed penalty notice relating to the hire and any traffic congestions charges. The lessor may, in order to avoid further penalties, pay fines and the hirer shall be liable to reimburse the lessor for the amount together with a £25.00 administration fee.
